

ASH BARTY SCHOOLS CHALLENGE FAQs

Popular questions for the Ash Barty Schools Challenge

QUESTIONS	ANSWER
What is the Ash Barty Schools Challenge?	The Ash Barty Schools Challenge is an initiative designed to encourage schools to incorporate tennis into their physical education programs. Schools that participate have the chance to win a visit from Ash Barty by submitting photos or videos of their students using tennis equipment.
Who can participate in the challenge?	All primary schools across the country are invited to participate. Teachers are encouraged to involve their students in tennis activities and showcase their efforts.
Can Secondary Schools participate in this challenge?	This is a primary schools-only competition. However, P-12 schools are not excluded from the competition.
When does the Ash Barty Schools Challenge Open and Close?	Opens: Tuesday 15th October 2024 Closes: Friday 11th April 2025
How do schools enter the competition?	To enter, teachers need to capture a photo or 30-second video of their students engaging in tennis activities and submit it via the website. Be sure to follow the submission guidelines for eligibility.
Is there a limit to how many times a school can enter?	No, each school can submit multiple entries. Each entry must showcase different activities or different groups of students.
What types of activities should we showcase?	You can submit photos or videos of various tennis related activities, such as students practicing their serves, throwing and catching the ball, hitting a ball against a wall, participating in games/activities, playing matches or using tennis equipment in creative ways. The more engaging and fun – the better!
Can we participate if we don't have tennis equipment packs?	Absolutely! You can still engage students in tennis-related activities using improvised equipment – like soft balls or targets. Just showcase how you're promoting tennis – and be creative!
What if my school has never played tennis before?	That's perfectly fine. The challenge is about encouraging schools to start incorporating tennis. Use this opportunity to introduce tennis to your students and have fun with it!
What are the submission guidelines?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Submit high-quality photo or 30 second video via the website submission form.• Ensure all students have consent to be filmed and photographed.• Submit by the competition deadline (11th April 2025)• Be delivering a Tennis in Schools program and be a Partner School.
