

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS TENNIS CARNIVAL

VICTORIAN TEAM SELECTION for National Indigenous Tennis Carnival and AUSTRALIAN OPEN 2023 FIRST NATIONS BALLKID TRIAL

Sunday 29 May 2022

1 - 3pm

AO2023 Ball Kid Trials (ages 12-15yrs)

3 - 5pm

Victorian Team Selection for NITC (12-17 yrs)

Green Ball (participation - any level of tennis)

Yellow Ball (performance - playing tennis events)

NITC being held in Darwin 11 - 14 August 2022

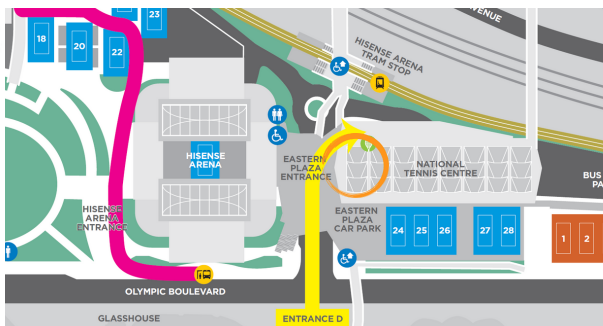

National Tennis Centre, Melbourne Park

Bulldau Yioohgen, Tennis Victoria and Tennis Australia invite Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander youth to attend a fun afternoon of tennis and opportunity to be a part of the AO2023 Ballkid Program or part of the Victorian representative team heading to the NITC in Darwin in August 2022.

Register here

For any questions about this opportunity, please contact the Tennis Victoria Inclusion Team at inclusionvic@tennis.com.au or 8420 8420

This event is open to new or aspiring tennis players of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent.

Please bring a drink bottle.

Meet at Tennis World, at the National Tennis Centre (circled on map above).

Car parking at National Tennis Centre, Eastern Carpark via Entrance D.
Tickets validated on the day.

For public transport Tram 70 stops at the back of Rod Laver Arena.

This event is first step toward selection for the AO 2023 Ballkid Program or the Victorian team heading to the National Indigenous Tennis Carnival in Darwin, 11 - 14 August 2022.

