

Competitions Committee: call for nominations

This Committee's primary role is to manage all rules and regulations of Tennis Victoria's Competitions and to support Tennis Victoria's overall Competition strategy. This includes the following competitions, Premier League, Pennant, Junior Pennant, Regional Team Events, ANZ Tennis Hot Shots Leagues, School competitions, and any new competitions that may be delivered by TV in the future.

The Committee is chaired by a Tennis Victoria Board Director, appointed annually and Committee member positions are approved bi-annually by the Tennis Victoria Board. The Committee comprises up to 8 voting members. The Committee meets up to 4 times per year. Committee members may be appointed to chair Advisory Panels which may be established as required to support the Competitions Committee in various competition related matters and activities (eg. grading, rules review and other related functions).

Committee appointments are for a 2 year period. Appointments are considered with a view to having a skills and knowledge base complementary of the different competitions that TV delivers and their related functions.
