

Recognition of Current Competence (RCC) Application Form

Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1)

What is RCC?

At Tennis Australia, we understand that coaches gain skills and knowledge through a range of work, study, life and other experiences. Prior learning has the capacity to significantly contribute toward an individual's current level of competence. In consideration of this, Tennis Australia offers the possibility for suitable candidates to provide evidence of their current level of competence or prior learning. This process is called Recognition of Current Competence (RCC) or Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). RCC is an assessment process that measures and evaluates an individual's formal and informal learning experiences to determine the extent to which the individual has achieved the required learning and competency outcomes or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of a coaching course.

If you have extensive coaching experience working with beginner and intermediate players, you may be a good candidate to achieve the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) certificate via the RCC process. During the RCC process, the coach's current knowledge and skills are assessed against a set of core competencies required by a Development (Level 1) coach. Coaches undertaking the course in the face-to-face mode are required to successfully complete a series of assessment tasks which allow the coach to provide evidence of their competence in these core areas. The competence of RCC candidates will be assessed and evaluated in a similar way. Candidates will be required to provide evidence to successfully complete these assessment tasks. Additional evidence may also be required in support of the candidate's RCC application.

The Coach Development Specialist (CDS) and Coach Development Manager (CDM) in your state or territory will review the RCC application to identify whether the candidate is suitable for the RCC process.

Based on this assessment a recommendation to the RCC candidate to either:

- (1) continue on the RCC path to achieve the Development Coaching Course (Level 1) certificate; or,
- (2) enrol in the next Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) to complete the qualification.

Characteristics of a Development (Level 1) coach

A Development (Level 1) coach must be able to:

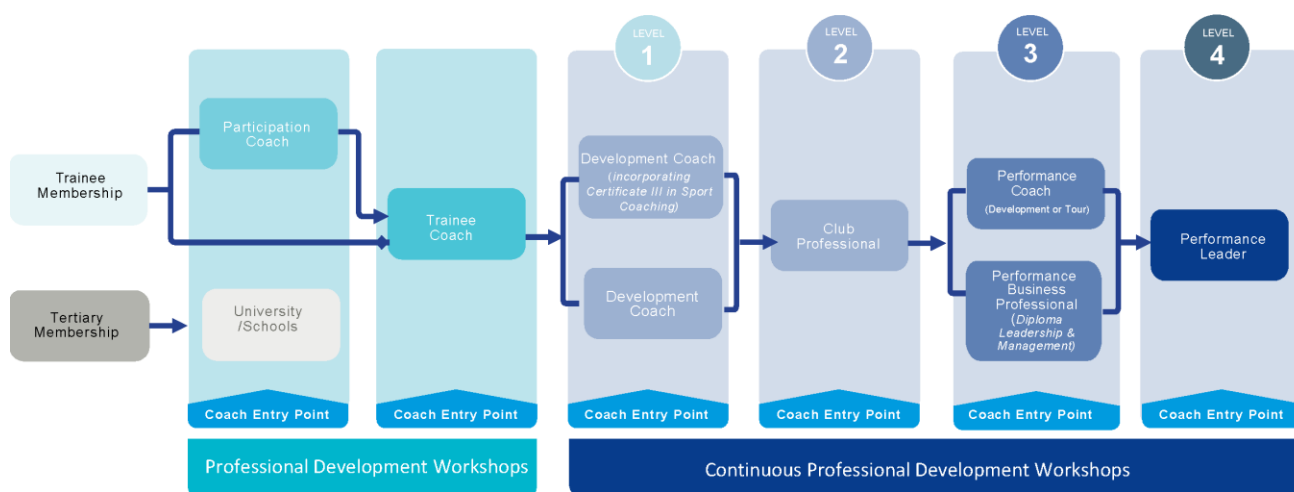

- Create and maintain a positive environment for players
- Conduct well planned coaching sessions which cater for the developmental readiness of players, are meaningful to Tennis and provide maximum participation and practice opportunities
- Plan for the continual development of players
- Implement various coaching programs for beginner Tennis players, specifically an FPMS program and the Hot Shots Tennis program
- Effectively communicate to players, parents and other key stakeholders; and,
- Reflect on their coaching performance and manage personal well-being.

Overview of the Development Coaching Course (Level 1)

During the course, participants will learn to develop the skills of junior Tennis players through the delivery of the Hot Shots Tennis program. There is a major focus on planning, delivering and reflecting on coaching sessions and creating positive learning environments for children. The course covers the Tennis Australia technical and tactical fundamentals, Cardio Tennis, legal and ethical responsibilities of a coach, risk management, program planning, Tennis rules, personal development and Tennis in schools.

Tennis Australia's coaching pathway

Tennis Australia offers a comprehensive coach education pathway for current and prospective Tennis coaches. Tennis Australia's courses are the only Tennis coaching courses officially recognised by the International Tennis Federation (ITF) in Australia. Our Coach Education system is recognised at the Gold level by the ITF.

Course competency

Module 1 – Coaching Tennis

- Unit 1 Coach junior players in Tennis
- Unit 2 Plan, conduct and review coaching programs
- Unit 3 Meet participant coaching needs
- Unit 4 Continuously improve coaching skills and knowledge
- Unit 5 Work in a community coaching role

Module 2 – Responsibilities of the coach

- Unit 6 Organise personal work priorities
- Unit 7 Provide first aid
- Unit 8 Apply business risk management processes
- Unit 9 Participate in workplace health and safety
- Unit 10 Respond to interpersonal conflict

Elements and performance criteria

Each unit of competency is made up of a series of elements. These elements of competency are the building blocks of the unit.

Performance criteria are statements that specify what is to be assessed and the required level of performance for each element of competency. Coaches will be required to provide evidence of competent performance in each criterion. A range of assessment tasks will be used to assess these performance criteria. Several performance criteria may be assessed during one task (e.g. during on-court coaching session). Tasks may be written, oral or practical and will assess the coach's knowledge, skills and understanding.

Providing evidence

RCC candidates are required to provide evidence of their competency for each element of competency and corresponding performance criteria.

The rules of evidence gathering are:

- The evidence you provide must be valid. It must relate to the specific competency unit that has been identified.
- The evidence must be authentic. It must be something you have produced or has been written about you.
- Evidence must be sufficient and demonstrate complete competency against the information that underpins a competency statement.
- The evidence must be reliable. It must show you can consistently perform a given competency to the required standard.
- Evidence must be current. This is a particularly important aspect as you must be able to demonstrate your evidence is still relevant to the skills and knowledge you have.

Prior learning can include skills and knowledge gained through:

- Paid work experience - full-time, part-time or casual in Australia or overseas
- Voluntary work
- Unpaid work that you do for yourself or your family such as managing events
- Being coached or mentored (or coaching and mentoring others)
- Attending and participating in seminars, conferences and workshops
- Short courses that are not TAFE accredited
- Private study and research
- Any other life experiences that have given you competencies that match those in the relevant courses.

Types of evidence

There are three types of evidence: direct, indirect and historical. The following table is a guide and you may be able to think of other types of evidence to demonstrate your skills and knowledge.

| Type of evidence | Examples of evidence |
|----------------------------|---|
| Direct evidence | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accredited qualification • Certificate of achievement • Demonstration of skill • Samples of work • Referee's report • Video • Photos • Published works such as session plans |
| Indirect evidence | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Industry Awards • Job specifications or position descriptions • Curriculum Vitae or Resume • Rosters or timesheets • Budgets • Visual presentations or written speeches • Letters or memos from your workplace • Reference/ or letters of support • Evidence of committee work • Reading lists • Workplace training records |
| Historical evidence | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Written references from past employers • Log books and other records of performance • Certificates or qualifications • Letters of support • Assignments, reports and documentation from previous courses undertaken • Past competency based assessments • Record of academic results • Course attendance record • Scrap books • Magazine or newspaper articles about your work |

Assessing your evidence

The Tennis Australia CDS or CDM in your state/territory or a Tennis Australia Coach Developer will assess your application. This individual will be at least Club Professional (Level 2) qualified.

Cost of RCC

The cost for RCC will vary depending on whether you hold a Tennis coaching qualification at an equivalent level from a provider recognised by Tennis Australia (e.g., LTA, ITF). For these candidates the cost will be $660 (incl GST). For coaches who do not hold a Tennis coaching qualification (at the equivalent level) or who have completed a coaching course with a provider not recognised by Tennis Australia, the cost will be $1300 (incl GST).

You will be required to maintain a current Trainee Tennis Australia Coach Membership until you have successfully completed the RCC course, at which time you will receive an upgrade to Qualified Tennis Australia Coach Membership for the remainder of your membership cycle.

Coaches who successfully complete the RCC process will receive the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) certificate if you completed the non-recognised course, if you completed the Recognised-Equivalency you will receive a certificate that recognises your existing qualification as an equivalent to the Development Coaching Course (Level 1) qualification.

Length of RCC process

It is expected the RCC process will be completed within 6 months from the date of the initial on-court assessment. An additional administration fee of $150 (incl GST) will be charged for those candidates who have not successfully completed all RCC requirements within 6 months from the date of the initial on-court assessment. Upon payment of the administration fee, an additional 6 months will be provided to complete all RCC requirements.
